ROBBER KILLED WOMAN IN STREET

Mrs. Mize Made Heroic Effort to Escape, But Was Shot Through the Heart.

the Heart.

(By Associated Press.)

OHICAGO, August 22,—Mrs. S. E. Mize, of New York city, was murdered tonght by a robber while taking an evening walk in one of the fashionable residence districts of the southside.

For the greater part of the summer Mrs. Mize has been a guest at the Del Prado Hotel when fronts on the midway plaisance. To-night, in company with Mrs. B. F. Wilson, of Las Cruces, New Mexico, also a guest at the hotel, she went out for a short walk. They had reached the corner of Fifty-ninth Birreet and Washington Avenue, two squares from the hotel, when they were confronted by a man who demanded their money and valuables. All along Fifty-ninth Street and on Washington Avenue people were sitting upon verandas and in the front yards of their residences, and Mrs. Mize evidently expecting help from some of them, vigorously attacked the robber, at the same time calling loudly for help, Mrs. Wilson turned and ran back toward the hotel. Mrs. Mize was able to utter just two cries for aid when the robber shot her through the heart, killing her instantly, Mrs. Wilson to was looking back at the time, fell in a faint. The murderer escaped.

RICHMOND POLLS QUITE A LARGE VOTE

a few heads and spoil a few features, were hast night enveloped in gloom, for the dove of peace which declined to perch at Portsmouth, N. H., alighted and perch at Portsmouth, N. H., alighted and lingered in Richmond for the primary.

Never was there such a placid election!
Never such a display of good will towards all candidates, but underneath the quiet and complacency of the "men behind the yotes," burns a fire of excitement that simply sizzles with red hot political fury and feeling. "Our candidate is a saint, while his competitor is a singuard scoundrel." is a fair example of what each side is saying, but outwarely there is a hypocritical guise of friendliness.

Fell in a Fit.

Fell in a Fit.

At Second Jefferson, just as The TimesDispatch man arrived, a man fell heavily to the ground and foamed at the mouth in the agony of a "fit." "What is the matter with him?" the reporter asked a gentleman adorned with a Montague badge.

"He wanted to vote for Martin, and his conscience threw him into a fit," repiled the adherent of the woodpecker.

"There ain't been no Montague voters having fits here to-day," retorted a Martin man, "because there ain't been no Montague voters."

But for the stalvart "gent" in blue, who majestically swung his club, there would have been blood in the air; as it was jeers and expletives filled the air and found their mark.

At Second Lee, a husky voter arrayed in a pair of elegant suspenders and other apparel, approached and offered to vote. The clerks, like the lady in the good Book, searched diligently, but falled to find the name of him who stood and find the name of him who stood and glared, his tax receipt firmly gripped in his fist.

his fist.
"You'll have to go to the clerk of the Hustings Court," advised the judge of the precinct.
"Not on your life." replied the disappointed one. "I won't have anything more to do with you crooked politicians." Away he went with "mad" written all over him and with him a vote that was not counted in the primary.

At Fourth Madison.

At Fourth Madison.

It was at Fourth Madison that the newspaper party was received with true regal honors, for Mr. Lehrman extended the "glad hand" and presented the freedom of the precinct. There were but few retainers in sight, and when questioned these said without hesitancy that they were "not for Mann." It went at that.

At First Marshall, in Fullon, was found the largest crowd that was seen at any precinct. Chief Werner was on hand, having stopped on his rounds of all the precincts. "There is absolutely no dis-order in the city," said the Chief. "I could not ask for any better behavior." Up to 3 o'clock, according to the figures secured by The Times-Dispatch, 5.527 votes had been cast in the twenty-three wards of the city.

Many Are Absent.

Many Are Absent.

If the vote falls short of that of the last primary it will be by reason of the absence from the city of a great number of voters. It is said, however, that the absence of these citizens will not injure any candidate or change the result of the primary, for in almost every instance the absences have arranged to "mair."

Senator Martin went to Scottsville to vote and returned to Richmond to receive the news of the election.

Danville, came in to this city for the returns.
Lieutenant-Covernor Willard went to Fairfax to cast his vote, but returned to Richmond at 7 o'clock last night.
Congressman Swanson did not vote. He was kept in Richmond on account of the death of his mother-in-law.
When the good citizens read the result of the election in The Times-Dispatch this morning a miracle will have happened, for some men, who have been on their knees to the voters of the State for months past, will have loomed up big as heroes in a single night and everyone who is not explaining will say, "I told you so."

CURED BY CUTICURA

I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D's. Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scapit and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skilful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suifering intensely all the time. Every moraing theire would be nearly a dustpantul of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them finif as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my akin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 1sth of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. ——treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I carnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin's liborer my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toc-unils came off, inger-nails dead and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry, and lifeless as old straw. O my God I how I did suffer.

My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Culicura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said, "We will try Culicura." Some was spiled on one hand and arm. Eurekal there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Culicura Resolvent, Ointment, and Soap. I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Culicura Resolvent three times a day safter meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Culicura Soapfreely; applied Culicura Ointment morning and evening. Result; returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. (signed) IIIRAM E. CARPENTER.

AROUND NORFOLK.

Two Elections in Berkley and Ballots Burned at Deep Creek.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., August 22.—There was trouble in Berkley soon after the election began to-day. The Straightouts and the Fusionists could not agree, and there were two polling places. This was in the East Berkley precinct, and the cause of it was that the Straightouts would not allow Mr. Futchins to act as ludge, beit was that the Straightouts would no allow Mr. Hutchins to act as judge, be cause he would not declare whether would vote for a Republican in the general election or not. George G. Martin, judge for the Owens-George G. Martin, judge for the Owens-Parker faction, was not allowed to serve. He said that he would not answer numerous questions propounded by the Straightouts not contemplated in the resolution adopted by the State Central Committee. According to Mr. Martin, he did take the pledge to support the nominees of the primary. It is alleged by the other side that Mr. Martin agreed to support the nominees if the primary was a fair one. This answer was not deemed satisfactory to the other judges, and he was not allowed to act.

The latter and their friends started a separate poll, but the vote was light at both of them.

The latter and their friends started a separate poll, but the vote was light at both of them.

An assault upon Chairman F. Nash Billsoly, of the Norfolk County Democratic Committee; an attempt to take the official ballots, furnished by the State Committee, from him by the Fusionists, and the burning of the ballots by Mr. Billsoly afterward, marked the opening of the primary in the Deep Creek voting precinct at sunrise this morning.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., August 22.—Edwin H. Conger, of Jown, has resigned his post as American ambassador to Mexico, to take effect October 18th next, and President Roosevelt has accepted the resignation. Mr. Conger's retirement from the diplomatic service was foreshadowed in dispatches last week. It was indicated that he might be sent to Pekin as a special commissioner. There are reasons to believe that the mission either has been abandoned by the President, or that it has been declined by Mr. Conger. At any rate, it is believed, Mr. Conger will not go to China as a representative of the government. It has not been determined definitely yet who will succeed Mr. Conger. David E. BUFFALO, N. Y., August 22.—One man was killed and two others were seriously injured to-day at the plant of the American Radiator Company, when a scaffolding, fortly feet high, and on which eight men were working, fell.

It was after the Reformation, when long sermons came into fashion, that pulpit hour-glasses were introduced. The pulpit had become a very 'drum-ecclesiastic,' and in the middle of the seventeenth century Puritan preachers held forth for two hours and more to drowsy teen to century form free to diowsy honers.

To remedy this abuse, hour-glasses were fixed upon the pullits, and we read of a preacher in 1622 who was "attended by man who brought after his book and hour-glass." Some charginesses, and we may imagine with what anxiety the parson's choice was looked for by clerk and congregation, if his sermons were dill and dry.

In the sixteenth century from-work stands were fitted for the reception of the hour-glass heed for the reception of the hour-glass. Book of which were very claborators because the sixteenth century churches for many years, but ceased to be in genoral use after the Restoration.—Pearson's Weekly.

The people of the city appreciate the great free show that The Times-Dispatch organizes for their entertainment, and the election returns exhibition in the Capitol Square is now looked upon as a great event to the people of the city and worthy of the great morning paper that instituted and maintains it.

The Times-Dispatch not only furnishes all the news all the time to its readers, but also never loses an opportunity of furnishing the news quickly and completely. Alleghany.

WOSTER O., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Irene Shields Vose, niece of Mrs. Taggart, was on the stand during the greater part of the morning at 10-day's hearing of the Braggart divorce case. Her testimony, however, did not develop any sensation. General Miner, who was Captain Taggart's superior officer at Fort Leavenworth, denied explicitly upon questioning from Judge Smyser, attorney for Mrs. Tuggart, any indiscretions whatever with Mrs. Taggart, as charged in the amended portion of Major Taggart's bills, and any conspiracy to falsely imprison the major at Fort Leavenworth.
